

By the Lord Deputy.

OSSORY,

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued untill the three and twentieth day of this instant September; And whereas for sundry Causes and Considerations; We have thought it fit and convenient and necessary further to Prorogue the said Parliament untill the five and twentieth day of October next; We do therefore will and require all persons to whom it doth or shall appertain to take due notice thereof, to the end that in the mean time they may repair to their Houses or otherwise apply themselves about their private Affairs at their pleasures, And then to give their attendance here again, at the day and time aforesaid, in the usual place appointed for that intended Service, whereof they may not fail.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the 12th. day of September, 1664.

GOD Save the KING.

DUBLIN,

Printed by John Crooke, Printer to the Kings Most Excellent Majesty and are to be sold by Samuel Dancer in Castle-Street. 1664.

